TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Western Sydney University, Sydney City Campus International Scholarship - Undergraduate 2026

1. Name of Scholarship

1.1 The Scholarship governed by these terms and conditions will be known as the "Western Sydney University, Sydney City Campus International Scholarship - Undergraduate 2026" (referred to in these terms as the "Scholarship"). For the purposes of these terms and conditions the Western Sydney University, Sydney City Campus may also be referred to as the "University" or "Sydney City Campus".

2. Eligible Programs and Intakes

2.1 Any CRICOS registered undergraduate degree available to study at Western Sydney University, Sydney City Campus.

2.2 Scholarships are available for all Undergraduate Programs in 2026.

3. Value of Scholarship

3.1 A multi-year payment towards undergraduate tuition fees for the amount of $3,000 OR $6,000. The amount will be credited towards the scholarship recipient's tuition fees after census date of scholarship recipient's first trimester each year (or the next, consecutive study trimester, upon successful completion of one year full time load of 80cp - up to three years maximum).

3.2 One full-time year is equivalent to the completion of 80 credit points. At Sydney City Campus a student can study up to three sessions per year of total 120 credit points maximum. See Section 4.2 about how subsequent instalment amounts are credited.

3.3 The scholarship value will offset the tuition fee of the subsequent session.

3.4 Total value of new multi-year scholarships examples:

- A student who has been awarded a $3,000 multi-year scholarship will potentially receive a total contribution of:
  - $3,000 towards 1 year of an undergraduate program (80 credit points remaining to complete degree)
  - $4,500 towards 1.5 years of an undergraduate program (120 credit points remaining to complete degree)
  - $6,000 towards 2 years of an undergraduate program (160 credit points remaining to complete degree)
  - $7,500 towards 2.5 years of an undergraduate program (200 credit points remaining to complete degree)
  - $9,000 towards 3 years of an undergraduate program (240 credit points remaining to complete degree)

- A student who has been awarded a $6,000 multi-year scholarship will potentially receive a total contribution of:
  - $6,000 towards 1 year of an undergraduate program (80 credit points remaining to complete degree)
  - $9,000 towards 1.5 years of an undergraduate program (120 credit points remaining to complete degree)
  - $12,000 towards 2 years of an undergraduate program (160 credit points remaining to complete degree)
  - $15,000 towards 2.5 years of an undergraduate program (200 credit points remaining to complete degree)
  - $18,000 towards 3 years of an undergraduate program (240 credit points remaining to complete degree)

- In the event of 160 credit points of advanced standing, the scholarship will apply to the reduced duration of the program after the advanced standing has been applied and will not exceed the annual value of the scholarship in any one year of full-time study. For example, if a student on $3,000 multi-year scholarship and has been granted advanced standing of 160 credit points and is only required to study one year to complete the program, a total of $3,000 scholarship value will be contributed to tuition fee.

3.5 The recipient will be paid the scholarship value to the student fee account (not the recipient's bank account).

3.6 The scholarship is a tuition fee waiver and does not cover costs associated with living expenses, accommodation, transport, overseas student health cover or other costs associated with study.

4. Payment Details and Conditions

4.1 The recipient must notify the University in writing that he/she will accept the Scholarship offer by signing and returning the Scholarship Recipient Agreement. Failure to notify the University will lead to the Scholarship offer being withdrawn and made available to another person. The recipient agrees to observe the terms and conditions of the Scholarship as set out in this document. The recipient must be enrolled in an eligible program at the University as published on the scholarship webpage https://city.westernsydney.edu.au/essential-information/scholarships/.

4.2 The recipient will be credited the first instalment of the undergraduate tuition fee scholarship after the Census date of scholarship recipient's first session. For the scholarship program to activate, the recipient must have a minimum enrolment load of 30 credit points at census date and complete the enrolment load of credit points by the end of the recipient's first session. Census date for:

- Session 1, 2026: 31 March 2026
- Session 2, 2026: 24 July 2026
- Session 3, 2026: 16 November 2026

If the program duration is between 90 and 160 credit points, there will be a second instalment as per Table 1 or Table 2 in Section 3.4. The recipient must have already successfully completed 80 credit points to activate the second instalment. The amount will be credited into the recipient's student fee account in the next available session.

For example, if the recipient completed 40 credit points in Session 1, 2026 and 40 credit points in Session 2, 2026 the next scholarship instalment will be credited after Census date in Session 3, 2026. Or if the recipient completed 30 credit points in Session 1, 2026, 30 credit points in Session 2, 2026 and 30 credit points in Session 3, 2026 the next scholarship instalment will be credited after Census date in Session 1, 2027.

If the program duration is above 160 credit points, there will be a second and third instalment as per the Table 1 or Table 2 in Section 3.4. The recipient must have already successfully completed 80 credit points to activate the second instalment and 160 credit points to activate the third instalment. The amount will be credited into the recipient's student fee account in the next available session

4.3 The scholarship value can be viewed from the recipient's statement after the student is enrolled in the subsequent session.

4.4 The recipient must commence the eligible undergraduate coursework program at Western Sydney University, Sydney City Campus in a 2026 intake for the first time. Commencement may not be deferred to 2027 and it is subject to scholarship availability.

4.5 The University is required to provide the student with an electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCoE) to enable the student to apply for an Australian student Visa. The eCoE will not be issued until the student has paid the required deposit amount as indicated in the offer letter. The scholarship value cannot be used to deduct the deposit amount.

4.6 Withdrawal or cancellation from study in later sessions or changes in visa status renders the recipient liable to repay any scholarship funds received for the relevant session and previous sessions. For example, if the recipient decides to withdraw from his/her study in Session 1 of 2026 semester or is no longer considered as international student, the value of the scholarship has been allocated to the student fee account and has been used to pay for the Session 1 of 2026 semester's tuition fee, the recipient is required to repay the scholarship value for Session 1 of 2026 semester. Scholarship value is not refundable to the student. If the recipient has credit of the scholarship fees in account from previous session, the credit amount cannot be refundable to the student.

4.7 The recipient must not be granted more than 160 credit points of advanced standing or study less than 80 credit points to complete the program.

4.8 The scholarship is for the nominated program identified in the offer letter which the student has accepted when scholarship offer was accepted. Changes in program are subject to approval from Western Sydney University, Sydney City Campus.

4.9 The scholarship covers the minimum program duration as stated on the initial admission offer letter when the scholarship was offered. For example, if a student is granted 80 credit points of advanced standing and requires two years to complete the program as stated in the initial offer letter, but due to some reasons (i.e leave of absence, subject failure, program changes, or etc) the student is unable to complete the program on schedule, the scholarship will not be extended, unless scholarship approval was granted in advance.

4.10 The scholarship applies only to the Sydney City Campus and is not transferrable to any other Western Sydney University campus. After the student changes to another campus, but want to change back to SCC, the scholarship eligibility is activated in the following session.

4.11 The recipient must notify Western Sydney University, Sydney City Campus, using their student email account, of any plans of changes to study pattern, i.e. study load, withdrawal, resignation or leave of absence. Their scholarship eligibility will be re-assessed in line with these Scholarship Terms and Conditions.

4.12 If any of the specified conditions are not met, the recipient status and continuation of the scholarship will be assessed and determined by the College Director and Principal, Western Sydney University, Sydney City Campus

4.13 It is the recipient's responsibility to inform Western Sydney University, Sydney City Campus, using their university student email account, if there is a change in their visa type or status.

4.14 Scholarship recipient will be responsible for any costs associated with obtaining a student Visa, overseas student health cover, student services amenities fee (SSAF) and any other costs associated with study.

4.15 For Scholarship taxation implications, recipients are advised to seek their own financial and tax advice on the impact of the receipt of the scholarship funds and review the Australian Taxation Office website at http://www.ato.gov.au/

5. Scholarship Continuing Conditions

5.1 The recipient is expected to maintain satisfactory academic progress maintaining a cumulative GPA 4 or greater over the academic year for the duration of the scholarship.

5.2 The recipient's mode of study must be full-time.

5.3 The recipient must notify Western Sydney University, Sydney City Campus via (admin@city.westernsydney.edu.au), using their student email account, of changes to study pattern and seek for scholarship approval, i.e. program changes, study load, withdrawal, resignation or leave of absence, prior to any changes happen officially.

5.4 It is the recipient's responsibility to ensure that the scholarship's terms and conditions are met and must not expect any form of reminder from the university.

5.5 The recipient agrees to periodically check their University email account for updates regarding their Scholarship.

6. Scholarship Opportunities

6.1 The recipient may be invited to:

- participate in University events for students and prospective students (eg Orientation, Open Day),
- assist in providing information to prospective students about programs and scholarship programs,
- provide a personal profile and photograph for use in promotional material,
- participate in peer mentoring/tutoring,
- undertake other engagements within and outside the university as required.

7. Termination of Scholarship

7.1 The Scholarship will be terminated if the recipient:

- does not commence in a 2026 session,
- ceases to meet the specific eligibility of the Scholarship,
- does not resume study at the conclusion of leave of absence,
- ceases to be enrolled,
- has been granted more than 160 credit points of advanced standing or has less than 80 credit points to complete the program,
- has been awarded another scholarship by the University or another organisation that covers the cost of the tuition fees (fully or partially) to study at Western Sydney University, Sydney City Campus.
